Carolyn Taylor Weds
Utah Man In Cardston Temple

On July 20th, marriage vows were exchanged between Carolyn Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taylor and Frank Wallace, son of Mr. and Mrs. Moroni B. Wallace of Provo Utah. The ceremony was performed by Pres. Smith in the Alberta Temple in the presence of about thirty-five close friends and relatives.

Following the wedding they all gathered at the Banquet Room of the Social Centre for a delightful dinner and program which included a Toast to the bride by T. Geo. Wood. Mrs. Edda Brandley read "The Brides Prayer", followed by a trio Marolyn Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Newman singing "I love You Truly" and "You Are My Sunshine".

The following evening many relatives and friends called at the Taylor home to extend their best wishes to the happy couple. The bride was lovely in a gown of white satin fashioned with a Suen Anne collar and a yoke of Chantilly lace, which matched the lace in her full skirt entrain. Her illusion net veil bordered with lace misted from a lace cap, and she carried a bouquet of pink sweetheart roses and feathered carnations.

The bridal couple, who stood in front of lighted tapers, were assisted in receiving the guests by Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace, the Best Man, Devoe Wallace, Marolyn Taylor as Maid of Honor, Kathleen Newman, Matron of Honor and Dorothy Madill of Vancouver, Carolyn Parker of Ogden, Utah, Vivian Fawns and Jeanne Brandley as Bridesmaids. Their gowns were of pink and blue nylon brocade while Mrs. Wallace and Mrs. Taylor chose blue lace gowns and corsages of pink sweetheart roses. Bouquets of white daisies and pink carnations were carried by the Brides attendants.

The gifts were accepted at the gate by either Brenda Jensen, Suzanne Wood, Charlotte Gehmlich or Ricky Meeks while Dr. and Mrs. Harlan Taylor presided at the Guest Book under a canopy of pastel colored streamers. Mrs. Norma Wood and Louis Brandley greeted the guests at the door and Mesdames Lavern Anderson Kate Card and Viola Wing acted as hostesses at the gift and lunch rooms.

During the course of the evening Mesdames Gadd, Martha Woolley, Zina Anderson, Idale Kenney, Bertha Stone, Grace Allen, Mildred Wood and Atha Peterson, arranged the many and varied gifts.

The delectable lunch was served at small tables in a beautiful setting of flowers and tiny multi-colored streamers, by Kay Stone, Mildred Men denhall, Nadine McBride, Rosmarie Slover, Rosemarie Hartley, Lavon Peterson, and Barbara Wing. Mrs. Phillipa Meeks who was in charge of the refreshments was assisted by Mesdames Edna Harker, Edna Gehmlich, Phoebe Dahl, Eleanor Hudson, Barbara Mac Phee, Dora King, Ella Hancock, and Jolayne Hill.

When Mrs. Wallace left for their honeymoon trip to Waterton, Yellowstone and the Teton Mountains, she was wearing a navy blue suit complemented with a corsage of sweetheart roses, and pink stole and accessories.

The newly weds will make their home in Salt Lake where the groom will finish his course in Pharmacy at the University of Utah and Carolyn her's in Home Economics.

There were out of town guests from Ogden, Provo, Salt Lake City, Taber, Lethbridge, Magrath and Vancouver.

Mr. and Mrs. Floran De Meester entertained at a family gathering on Sunday when Mrs. De Meester's parents Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Brown and son of Brooks visited at their home. A delicious dinner and visiting was enjoyed on the lawn. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Claude Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Merton of Milk River and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Brown of Sweet Grass.

Mrs. Goldie Suchaplass, the former Mrs. Schoultz, of Lacombe and small daughter Carrie has been the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Carlyle Litchfield the past week. Her son Charles visited Leslie Stevenson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Stevenson while in town.

Mr and Mrs. Gerry Melchin and Mrs. Melchin's parents Mr. and Mrs. Clair Knowles recently enjoyed a trip to Waterton and over the Logan Pass.

The Bruce Galbraiths, Lee Burrs, and Golden Snows and families enjoyed an evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Stone on Sunday when recordings were made of their voices. Mrs. Stone served a delicious lunch.

Betsy Shaw and Pat Mitchell left on Monday for Los Angeles by bus where they will meet Pete Shaw who is returning from his mission. They went by way of Vancouver where they visited relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Galbraith have enjoyed having as their guests her sister and husband Mr. and Mrs. Lee Raymond visitors over the week with the Kennneys, Meldrum's and Ralphs.

Galbraiths were even happier to have home for the summer their son Paul who lives with the Burrs while attending school.

Mrs. J. T. Heninger is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Galbraith while here from Salt Lake. She came with the Burrs to spend the summer in Alberta.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Holt entertained Saturday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Burr. An evening of reminiscing was enjoyed by the Wallace Wildes, Bruce Galbraiths, Mrs. J. T. Heninger, and Mrs. Wilson Rolfsen after which a lovely lunch was served.

A very interesting afternoon was spent at the Eldon Peterson home when Mirra entertained a number of relatives at a lawn party, with Mrs. Melba Burr a special guest. Part of the fun was looking at old pictures many hadn't seen before, after which chatting and a very tasty lunch were enjoyed by Mesdames Virginia Rolfsen Marva Nalder, Honnie Heninger, Beth Galbraith, Louise Brammer from town Joy Heninger of Wrentham, Lois Grant and Ruth Heninger of Lethbridge and Miss Pearl Heninger of Magrath. The children all had a gay time playing on the lawn as well.

Funeral Services Held
For George A. Terry

Funeral services were held on July 30th, at 2 p.m. in the Second Ward Chapel for George A. Terry, with Bishop Wm Jensen conducting. The choir sang under the direction of Gen Hawk ins for the opening number "O My Father" with Dora Oler at the organ. Opening prayer was by J. McLean of Lethbridge. President J. H. Walker was first speaker giving the life history of George Terry and his father that was very interesting to the family. Marie Matkin sang by special request "Danny Boy" a favorite song of Mr. Terry. Patriarch McMullin was the next speaker, followed by a duet by Muriel Terry and Winnie Strong of Lethbridge. T. Geo. Wood was the next speaker closing his remarks with a very beautiful poem, "A Friend" that was very much like Mr. Terry. Jeanine Jensen sang "The End Of A Perfect Day." A grandson, Dick Bowden just returned from a mission in Australia paid a fine tribute to his grandfather. The benediction was by Eldred Hudson and L. L. Palmer dedicated the grave.

Six grandsons were pallbearers: Delbert Thompson, Bill Bowden, Harlan Terry, Norman Price, Bob Parks, and Dick Bowden. Granddaughters and great granddaughters were flower girls.

He was a pioneer of Raymond coming here in 1902 with his bride Violet Shields. He was 81 last Feb. 16th. He leaves 7 children, 31 grandchildren, and 7 great-grandchildren. He was predeceased by his wife just a year ago on the 2nd of August.

He has one sister Mrs. Sytha Howard of Salt Lake and a brother Willard Terry of Idaho Falls. They were unable to be present due to illness.

Anne Takes A Trip

Having just returned from a too short visit to Victoria, I am very Victoria minded, and I would like to tell you a few of the sights I crammed in to two short days.

Max and Roxie were kind enough to give me a pass on the train, thus making the trip possible, and the company of my good friend Mabel Veen made it very pleasant.

We were met at the dock by Mr. and Mrs. Gil Oliver (my former N. E. salesman), Wes Harrison my son-in-law to be come October, also Mabel's friends Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stevens (Mabel Grand), some of you will remember her she used to live here.

Some of the sights I enjoyed were: the tour of the Capital grounds, Beacon Hill Park, and Empress Hotel gardens. I've never seen so many beautiful flowers and shrubs. They even grow out of solid rock. All the street lamp posts have two baskets of growing flowers suspended from them.

Holly trees were everywhere profusely covered with their red berries. I saw my first "Monkey Puzzle" tree—they are the only tree that a monkey cannot climb, due to their cactus like prongs that grow downward.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Court and Mr. and Mrs. Alan Heggie motored to Shelby recently to attend the stampede.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of George Terry wish to thank all those who helped in any way during their recent bereavement.

Pretty Summer
Wedding For Jean Chanda

A lovely summer wedding was solemnized on Saturday, at ten o'clock Church Raymond, when Jean Chanda daughter of Mrs. Alex Chanda and the late Mr. Alex Chanda became the bride of Philippe Labelle son of Mr. and Mrs. P. Labelle of St. Boniface Manitoba. Father McElgunn performed the ceremony.

The bride was lovely in a white nylon gown fashioned with a lace bodice and long lilly point sleeves and full skirt of sheer nylon. Her three-quarter length veil cascaded from a pearl ornated coronet and she carried a bouquet of white gladiolus and red roses in a Lucky horse shoe pattern.

The Bride entered the church on the arm of her rother Roy Chanda and Mrs. Jack Koktas played the wedding music.

Marie Gasler was Maid of Honor dressed in pink nylon and carrying a colonial nosegay of carnations and roses.

Mr. Labelle, brother of the groom was Best Man.

Following the ceremony a chicken dinner was served to relatives and close friends and then at six o'clock a reception was held in the Opera House where over 300 enjoyed the sumptuous dinner and dance, with Jack Patey's Orchestra furnishing the music. During the Brides Dance Jean received $350.00.

Mrs. Chanda chose for her daughters wedding a blue sheer gown with matching accessories complemented by a corsage of pink roses. The grooms mother chose a grey gabardine suit with matching accessories also complemented by a rose corsage.

Mrs. Jolayne Hill looked after the many and varied gifts while Mrs. V. Gasler was in charge of the Guest Book.

For her honeymoon trip to Great Falls Mrs. Labelle chose an aqua tailored suit with red accessories and a pink rose corsage.

They will make their home in Calgary where the groom is employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Alan Nalder and son Randy of Blairmore were visitors in town at the Cliff Nalder and Anne Larsen homes. Tommy and Lois Larsen returned home with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Babb and family have returned after a very enjoyable vacation that took them to Salt Lake where they witnessed the beautiful parade held on the 24th of July. They also visited many relatives in Salt Lake before returning home by way of Yellowstone Park where they visited for three days.

Howard Hicken and Wally Wilde took the Second Ward Deacons on a fishing trip to the Pass, last week. A good time was had by all.

Monday afternoon the home of Mrs. J. O. Turner was the scene of a pleasant gathering when she entertained in honor of her husbands mother, Mrs. Minnie W. Turner of North Hollywood, California. Twenty ladies of the town spent the afternoon visiting and reminiscing. Towards the end of social the hostess showed slide pictures of Banff and Jasper Parks. Later a dainty lunch was served. Those in attendance besides the honored guest were—Mrs. Lavina Kirkam, Mrs. Elizabeth Fisher, Mrs. Norma Wood, Mrs. Emma Nilsson, Mrs. Retta Walton, Mrs. Sarah Fraser, Mrs. Ruth Hicken, Mrs. Elizabeth King, Mrs. Kate Card, Mrs. Norma Meldrum, Mrs. Angelina Nalder, Mrs. Nellie Bennett, Mrs. Eunice Snow, Mrs. Annie Woolley, Mrs. Louella Taylor, and Mrs. Annie Selman.

A FARM POLICY FOR YOU!

A PROGRESSIVE CONSERVATIVE GOVERNMENT
AT OTTAWA will give you ACTION on the following:

1. 100% Wheat Board.
2. Stronger Producer representation on the Wheat Board at policy levels.
3. Initial grain prices based on costs of production.
4. Advances on grain stored on the farm.
5. Immediate steps to restore and expand world markets for farm products.
6. Floor Prices related to farm production costs and announced well in advance of each crop season.

These are sound practical policies.
Canadian Agriculture needs these policies.

The present Government has refused to put these policies into effect ...

Every man carries with him the world in which he must live.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Mae Selman entertained a few friends at her home when enjoyable hours were spent reminiscing and catching up on the latest news. Her guests were: Mesdames Irene Anderson, and Beth Gibb of Barnwell, Gladys Davidson of Montreal, Mildred (Boysen) Wood lately of Germany and now Tacoma, and Betty Evans, all of whom lived together in Calgary several years ago while attending school. All the children were present as well.

A delightful lunch was served by the hostess at the end of the afternoon.
